Teutul with the Key to the City. It's going to be quite a day. We expect a couple of hundred bikes and thousands of spectators to attend the event."

The Grand Opening and Bike Show will take place at Trinity's new South Tulsa facility, the fifth building in Trinity's Tulsa operation and offers customers paint, body and full mechanical services. The building is Tulsa's largest paint, body and mechanical facility with over 25,000 square feet located on 2.5 acres giving it the largest parking access of its type in the area as well. The facility includes the latest state-of-the-art paint, body and mechanical equipment and a car dealership style showroom with enough space to display automobiles and motorcycles. The new facility opened for business on July 5th, 2007, which marked Trinity's 20th year in business. It was designed by Brad Lechtenberger and Tom Daman, built by John Rupe Construction, and features interiors by Heather Miller of The Home Collection in Utica Square, all of Tulsa.
