Mayor Kathy Taylor proclaims “Trinity Restoration Day” October 13th, 2006 in Tulsa, Oklahoma

Trinity breaks ground on largest facility in Tulsa

Tulsa, Oklahoma, October 13th, 2006 – Today Mayor Kathy Taylor proclaimed, “WHEREAS, Trinity Restoration will hold its “Official” Ground Breaking Friday, October 13th, 2006; and, WHEREAS, Trinity Restoration provides the highest quality paint, body and mechanical restoration services in Tulsa; and, WHEREAS, Trinity Restoration began in 1987, and has served over 10,000 customers since; and, WHEREAS, Trinity Restoration’s aim is to help people individually and in the process restore their vehicles impeccably while promoting and supporting the Tulsa community as a whole through the quality of their work and the integrity of their service.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Kathy Taylor, Mayor of the City of Tulsa, do hereby proclaim Friday, October 13th, 2006, as “Trinity Restoration Day” in the City of Tulsa. IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the City of Tulsa to be affixed on the thirteenth day of October, Two Thousand Six. Kathy Taylor, MAYOR.”

With this proclamation Trinity Restoration “officially” broke ground on their new paint, body and mechanical facility. The ceremony was held at 11 a.m. at the construction site located on 98th Street South just East of Memorial Drive. Company executives, business partners, customers, employees and local officials were some of the approximately 75 people in attendance.

Trinity owner, David Miller made the following comments at the ceremony, “We are here today to “officially” break ground on Trinity’s new South Tulsa location. This location will be the newest and largest paint, body and mechanical facility in all of Tulsa. This new 25,000 square foot facility will open next spring just in time to celebrate Trinity’s 20th year in business. We are very proud to be a successful part of Tulsa’s business community and look forward to doing so for years to come.

In honor of this occasion, Mayor Kathy Taylor of Tulsa has proclaimed today, “Trinity Restoration Day’ and we certainly thank her for doing so. That being said, you should all know that I am not doing this alone. Therefore, I would like to thank some of the many people who have made this great day possible.

Starting with my awesome wife, Heather, who is also handing our interior design through her company, The Home Collection in Utica Square, Dennis and Angle Cockrell, the original owners of Trinity, Gwen Gross, my Manager, all our outstanding employees, our customers, our friends and family, Luke Goodwin, my attorney, Tom Gribben and Dick Alaback, my real estate brokers, Sack and Associates, our civil engineers, all of whom have been with me since the "Bixby Days", Brad Lechtenberger and Tom Daman, our Architects, John Rupe, our builder, and everyone else who has supported us over the years. Thank you so much!"

The new $3 Million facility will be the fourth building in Trinity's Tulsa operation and is expected to produce $6 Million in gross sales annually. When completed the facility will be the largest of its kind in Northeast Oklahoma with 2.5 acres of parking and over 25,000 square feet of building. Photographs of the ground breaking can be viewed at www.trinitytulsa.com.
